Register for Virtual Programs

Many of our programs this fall will be held virtually through the online video chatting platform, Zoom. To keep our Zoom space safe and secure, registration is required for all Zoom programs. To register for adult programs, visit the library website at www.doverlibrary.org/register, email Sherrel Rieger at srieger@doverlibrary.org or call the library at 330-343-6123. An email address is required for adult program registration.

Speak Out Ohio

Monday, October 5 @ 6:30 PM on Zoom
 Angel White and Adrian Dotson will raise awareness about self-harm by sharing information about the dangers, causes, and prevention of this. By sharing healthy coping techniques and local resources, they hope to provide guidance to people who are struggling. Registration is required.

Director's Notes

by Jim Gill

"You make a living by what you get. You make a life by what you give."

- Winston Churchill

This fall the library will be searching for a new member of our Board of Trustees, as longtime Vice-President Julie Warther has decided to move on to the next chapter of her life. Julie will be missed for her dedication to the library and for her commitment to making the Dover Public Library the best that it can be.

As a new library director over a decade ago, Julie went out of her way to make sure I felt welcome. She supported me and the library as it changed directions and evolved and grew into a place of true community. We will miss Julie's leadership, as well as her penchant for beautifying the library grounds with her gardening skills. Julie is also a poet, and her book of 20 haiku, What Was Here, is a treasured part of our library's collection. If you are interested in applying for the open Trustee position, please stop by the library to pick up an application. Information can also be found on our website, www.doverlibrary.org.

This fall, as you enjoy the changing colors and savor the crisp autumn air, take a moment to slow down and to appreciate the precious ordinary that is all around us. Ben Moeller-Gaa, who wrote a review of Julie's book, said, "life is happening all around us, and that we not only should, but need to stop and take notice before we, too, become something that once was here."

Keep reading everyone!

-Jim Gill
Director

Bestow a Book

Our lives are filled with people, moments, and occasions which we wish to commemorate. Bestow a Book gives you the opportunity to present a gift that will be opened time and time again as part of the collection of the Dover Public Library. A book plate inside the cover will share your memory with the community. Each Bestow a Book title costs $25. Please contact Jim Gill at 330-343-6123 or director@doverlibrary.org for more information.

As Dover Public Library Board of Trustees Vice President Julie Warther begins her next adventure, we asked her a few questions about life, libraries, and literacy.

1. What has been the best thing about serving the community as a Trustee at the Dover Public Library?

I felt honored to have had the opportunity to participate in this vibrant part of our community. The overwhelming support shown by the community confirms time and again that what we do is important and valued here.

2. How has the library changed during your time as a Trustee?

I've been on the board with two directors, a levy campaign, a remodel of the Children's Department and later a remodel of the rest of the library. We've grown in so many ways; it's been an incredible journey!

3. What words of advice would you impart on someone considering applying for the open Trustee seat?

Love the library and this community. Bring your own unique talents and be ready to jump in with both feet!

4. What do you like to do in your free time?

My favorite hours are spent with my kids, or reading, writing poetry, hiking at Norma Johnson's Conservation Center and kayaking the Tuscarawas River.

5. What is your greatest memory of growing up in Dover?

I recognize I had a near-idyllic childhood with a loving family, lots of outside time, and a love of reading.

6. One thing about me that people would be surprised to know is...

I am a poetry nerd!

7. What is your favorite book of all time and why?

The one book that surfaces when this question is asked is Richard Adams's Watership Down. That's the one special book for me.

8. You are about to begin the next chapter of your life. Can you share what is next for you?

I am moving to Wisconsin with two cats where we will likely be snowed-in often and catch up on stacks of books. As my people are here in Ohio, I will make regular trips back to visit. Don't be surprised if you run into me at the library!

Thank you, Julie Warther, for your years of service to the community!

Mini Sketchbook Project

Fill up a Sketchbook - Add it to the Collection

Teens in grades 6-12 are challenged to fill up a sketchbook this fall and donate it to our Mini Sketchbook Project Collection!

Guidelines:

- Artwork must be original work
- Art does NOT have to follow a theme or prompt list
- Fanart or studies must give credit to original artist
- Submissions featuring inappropriate artwork will not be added to the collection
- Sketchbooks must be approximately 4" x 4"
- Sketchbooks will NOT be returned to artists

Sketchbooks and submission forms are available in the Teen Room while supplies last. Teens who submit sketchbooks by November 1 will be entered to win a Game Stop gift card. This project is funded by a 21st Century Afterschool Learning Grant with Dover High School.
